

DK: Der er en vej, som vi alle går alene / UK There is a path

Peter Møller 1992

There is a path that we all must tread un - aid - ed, it leads to dark-ness, an un-known twi - light clime; and none have ev - er re - turned from those dark regions with news of what lies be - yond the edge of time.

2. There is a man who alone in loving-kindness bore human suff'ring
and went into that night.
What none could carry
He carried for all others:
He entered darkness -
and darkness changed to light.

3. There is a law
which compared to death is stronger:
that loving-kindness
will triumph at the last;
and Christ instated
that law as universal.
Now grace will comfort
all those whose faith stands fast.

4. There is a path
that we never tread unaided
although it leads us
into an unknown clime;
for Christ is waiting for us at death's last bound'ry; He is our life-line beyond the edge of time.
